The basic design is in ThreaDelightT palette. As you can see, each color comes with a color swatch, color number, generic color name and conversion to most suitable color numbers in Sulky and Robinson Anton palettes.

For your convenience, the colors are sorted from light to dark (or the opposite) within each color family. This allows you to eye-match colors easily, and even completely change color palette according to your taste and needs. For example, even if we suggest a rose to be pink, you may change its colors to blue ones or orange ones, by selecting a new color family and sorting it in identical way (from light to dark or the opposite).

Also, if you'd like to expand your selection of gradient colors that are so much required for cross-stitch designs, you can. We carry the complete palette of ThreaDelightT brand. It's available here:
